31th Annual Dinner Meeting at the AAN ←

- We are continuing the tradition of honoring a senior member of the profession who has made significant contributions to our field. This year's honoree is Martha Bridge Denckla, M.D.
- We will also honor the 2015 Norman Geschwind Prize Winner. This year's winner is Andrew S. Kayser, M.D., Ph.D.
- We will continue the Annual SBCN Research Forum
A series of brief presentations by members of our cognitive neuroscience and behavioral neurology research community on their most interesting projects. A lively discussion among attendees is anticipated.
Presenters will include: Stewart Mostofsky, AM Barrett, Kirk Daffner, and Bradford Dickerson
- A BUFFET DINNER WILL BE SERVED
